

and trails & specifics

At the end of the year, the board of directors is responsible for reviewing the company's performance and determining the appropriate compensation for the CEO and other top executives.

voice to a

...ple mechanisms for
...e you have
...a th

70